A Message from our Minister

Hello Church!

What a wonderful annual meeting as a spiritual practice many of us experienced on Sunday.

It made me happy to see you tend to church business with such grace and positivity. You passed the amended budget, honored outgoing leaders, recognized staff, elected and commissioned new leaders, adopted the 8th principle, and you now have a covenant. Congratulations on a successful year of shared ministry. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve you. My time with you is almost complete. I am looking forward to my last Sunday with you on June 16th when we will celebrate our new members and share our new covenant. In the meantime, as Jane Kenyan expresses in her poem, I invite you to notice where happiness shows up in your life, perhaps in places you least expect. For me happiness sneaks up at dawn as the birds lull me from sleep, when hugging a child on my street who magically became a young adult in the blink of an eye, while watching an old man in the grocery store looking for pickles, and witnessing your community growing in love.

Many blessings,

Christina

Happiness by Jane Kenyon

There's just no accounting for happiness, or the way it turns up like a prodigal who comes back to the dust at your feet having squandered a fortune far away.

And how can you not forgive?
You make a feast in honor of what was lost, and take from its place the finest garment, which you saved for an occasion you could not imagine, and you weep night and day to know that you were not abandoned, that happiness saved its most extreme form
for you alone.

No, happiness is the uncle you never knew about, who flies a single-engine plane onto the grassy landing strip, hitchhikes into town, and inquires at every door until he finds you asleep midafternoon
as you so often are during the unmerciful hours of your despair.

It comes to the monk in his cell.
It comes to the woman sweeping the street with a birch broom, to the child whose mother has passed out from drink.
It comes to the lover, to the dog chewing a sock, to the pusher, to the basketmaker, and to the clerk stacking cans of carrots
in the night.

It even comes to the boulder
in the perpetual shade of pine barrens, to rain falling on the open sea,
to the wineglass, weary of holding wine.

Special Events / Opportunities

Fellowship Lunch – Sunday June 18, 2023

11:30 - 12:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall

The third Sunday of each month (Oct thru May) is Fellowship Lunch Sunday which replaces coffee hour. This event will be open to all service attendees. This is quite posh and definitely not a potluck. Attendees are encouraged to enjoy community at a restaurant style sit-down meal.

We generally have a "base" kitchen crew but need a few extra volunteers at each luncheon to help set up and serve. Kitchen crew and setup Extras will have to watch a stream of the service from Fellowship Hall while working. If you want to attend the service but can volunteer as a server that is fine too. If you are willing to sign up as an Extra, please email Marilyn Dunn (maine2007@hotmail.com) or call (207) 512-5382.

TWO UPCOMING SPECIAL EVENTS

Poetry Service being organized for Sunday, July 23rd.

Emily Dickinson once wrote to a friend, including the phrase '...pardon my sanity in a world insane...' I will be organizing a poetry service that speaks to - Sanity in a World Insane - through the voices of our congregation in poetry and prose for Sunday, July 23rd.

All members of the congregation are welcomed to write a poem or a short prose paragraph that speaks to the topic. If you find a referenced quote that you like, please confirm that it is in the public domain before sending it. Please send your submissions to John Seksay at netmotel@gmail.com and I will weave as many as possible into this service.

I will be organizing the content starting July 9th, so that will be my cutoff for receiving content."

ADVENTURES IN SEWING <UPDATE> (a new 4-week offering at UCC)

Adventures in Sewing was a huge success at the first session. Twelve people arrived, got settled and worked on their individual projects. Two folks started learning how to use a sewing machine. Lots of sharing of projects and conversation was seen.

The next three sessions are June 12, 19 and 26 from 9:30am to noon. Be sure to let Nancy Fritz or Martha Naber know if you will be attending – Martha at 887-1104 or 313-5859, or Nancy at 213-3047. Thanks.

An opportunity for reflection...

An opportunity to reflect on the latest wayside pulpit message being shared on the corner of Winthrop and Summer Streets.

"We use flowers to help us symbolize the love that is hidden deep inside us." ~Anonymous

Thank you to Angie Blevins for maintaining the wayside pulpit and providing us with messages to ponder.

NO PARKING in Kennebec County Sheriff’s Lot

As Don and I were leaving church on Sunday May 21 we met Deputy Sheriff Boudreau. He talked with us about the Kennebec County Sheriff Department which recently moved into the building next to Judd House. They request that NO CARS be parked there as they need the space free for the movement of sheriff dept. vehicles. He was glad this message would be shared with the congregation.

Notes from Worship on Boxcast and Copyright

Recently the Worship Committee has been wrestling with two related issues: copyright considerations and accessibility of our recorded services on Boxcast. After learning that we paid storage fees for recordings kept longer than 90 days, we started deleting older services. However, questions about copyright and broadcasts made us look again at how we manage our services on Boxcast.

In consultation with Rev. Christina, we decided our best course of action was to keep our broadcasts as private as possible to reduce copyright concerns, and to continue to select readings and music for worship as we have in the past. We will safeguard our privacy in two ways: we will not link our broadcast to wider public venues such as Facebook and YouTube, and we will delete each recording after a week, when a new service becomes available. Most people who view a recorded service do so within a few days, so this will probably not substantially change viewing habits. The policy will go into effect this Sunday with Flower Communion.

It's important to note that the recording of a service actually belongs to the worship leader, not to UUC. If a worship leader asks us to remove the recording sooner, we will do so. Churches across the country have been facing these issues since the pandemic moved them to online venues, and like us, many have chosen to keep broadcasting even after returning to worship in person. We will continue to pay attention to the issues raised, and to do our best to respect the rights of the musicians and writers whose work enhances our worship.

Social Justice Committee

8th Principle UPDATE -- The Social Justice Committee is thrilled to announce the passage of the 8th Principle at our Annual Meeting last Sunday. We want to thank everyone who supported this important step on our UUC journey toward Beloved Community. We have shared this with the national UU 8th Principle Learning Community, and learned that at least four other churches across the country adopted the 8th Principle on the same day.

MUSAN Legislative Updates

Maine's forests play a critical role in mitigating climate change! They absorb 60% of the state's annual greenhouse gas emissions and also protect biodiversity.

LD 993 is a bill to establish a Forest Advisory Board for Maine.

A Forest Advisory Board would bring together a variety of viewpoints – loggers and biologists, commercial landowners and indigenous tribes, sportsmen and ecologists – to share information, facilitate public input, look at the forest comprehensively, and advise the Maine Forest Service on policies to keep our forests healthy, intact, and productive.

LD 993 has just been voted on and passed in the Maine legislature. Governor Mills vetoed this bill in the past. Now is the time to write Gov. Mills and/or a letter to the editor in favor of this bill (tips and links here).

Want more information or talking points? Check out this link. You can also "share your opinion" with the Governor on this online form.

Then go to the MUUSAN website and click on the button I Took Action to report your action.

Thank you SO much for taking the time for this important Climate Action!

An Act to Restore Access to Federal Laws Beneficial to the Wabanaki Nations

This legislation would amend the portion of the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act that specifically excludes the Wabanaki Nations from the federal Indian laws that have benefitted the other 570 federally recognized tribes: laws meant to improve public health, recover from natural disasters, and promote economic development.

Ongoing efforts from our Social Justice Committee

Donation boxes have been placed in the church coat room for non-perishable food items to go to the Augusta Food Bank and for toilet paper, soap, shampoo, toothpaste, tampons, sanitary pads, diapers and wipes, which are high priority needs right now, to go to the Essential Hygiene Pantry at Bridging the Gap.

The Augusta Overnight Emergency Warming Shelter (located at South Parish Congregational Church) has many needs which frequently change. Go to their Facebook page and check "Our Needs" to find out what's urgent. There is a donation box for the Shelter in our coat room, too.

All are worthy organizations that provide much needed services to our community. Your donations will be greatly appreciated and put to good use. For more information, contact co-chairs Stefanie Barley (stefbarley@gmail.com) and/or Susan Shaw (susanmaine@gmail.com), who will make regular deliveries of items that you contribute or email Susan Shaw, susanmaine@gmail.com regarding food donations.
