A Message from our New Minister

The song “Seasons of Love” has been running through my mind this week. I’m reminded of it as I reflect on our ingathering water ceremony just a few weeks ago. The congregation named gifts and intentions for the year ahead as we collected the drops of water. The word cloud on the next page is a mix of all you shared.

Congregational life together, living into the call of Unitarian Universalism will require all of these! This congregational ministerial search year offers us opportunities for continued reflection on life together. Who is UUCC now? Who do you want to be in the world in the future? What anchors you in health? What scaffolding is there to support continued health, wellness and work on this sacred journey of life?

Please find places to join in this congregational year. It will be exciting!!!

Love and light,
Reverend Donna (she, her)

Here is the calendar link from our website where you’ll find many of the activities.

To make appointments with Rev. Donna, Please feel free to use the calendly link or email, minister@augustauu.org.

Sunday October 15, 2023 Ingathering music to begin at 9:55 a.m.	“The Speed of Trust” Rev. Donna Dolham At the foundation of Unitarian Universalism is the development of community. Trust is the center of relationships and buoys movement forward into new adventures. How are we as Unitarian Universalists engaging spiritual practices and relationships of trust? A special thank you to our worship arts team. Sara Hodgkins will be our worship associate and Priscilla J. Jenkins will manage technology. Karen Allen will be our pianist. Join us after the service for a sit down FELLOWSHIP LUNCH &lt;See details in [Special Events/Opportunities] below.&gt; SHARE THE PLATE: This month's recipient, chosen by the Social Justice Committee is New England Grassroots Environment Fund. The Grassroots Fund is dedicated to co-creating healthy and sustainable communities throughout New England. They empower individuals, groups and organizations working across a broad range of environmental and social justice issues by helping them identify, select and access the specific tools, resources and connections they need to challenge existing systems and develop lasting solutions to the complex problems affecting their communities.
Sunday October 22, 2023 Ingathering music to begin at 9:55 a.m.	“The Unspoken Principle” Small Group Ministry “Service is both a path and an outcome of spiritual growth”. Small Group Ministry offers opportunities to deepen the spiritual growth of our members as we serve our community and beyond in ways large and small, immediate and longer term. The groups share ‘service experiences,’ the importance of service as part of Small Group Ministry, and how service strengthens the bonds within the UCC Community. The Service Collage shows the many ways that service is part of the life of the small group. A special thank you to our worship arts team. Marty Peters will be our worship associate and John Seksay will manage technology. Morgan Lee will be our pianist and the Choir will present "Connected" by Brian Tate; Morgan Lee, piano. Fellowship Hour will be hosted by Richard Bridges and his small group.

Sunday worship service is held IN-PERSON in the Sanctuary. Please be aware that the church doors will now be locked 10 minutes after the service begins. The greeter will be at the front door to let anyone in after that time.

Special Events / Opportunities

There's No Such Thing as a FREE Lunch.

Right????

WRONG...

It's B-A-C-K!!

Our wildly popular monthly Fellowship Luncheon returns October 15th and continues through May on the third Sunday. Please everyone - have a light breakfast and enjoy a sit down lunch with serving staff immediately after the service. This is NOT a potluck but a planned menu event.

Marilyn Dunn is the event coordinator and is seeking entrees serving at least eight.

Suggestions: Lasagna, American chop suey, chili, quiche, corn chowder, shepherd's pie or a vegan dish.

Additionally, we need grapes, brownies, or cookies for the dessert trays.

Please contact Marilyn Dunn if you can contribute call 207 512 5382 or email maine2007@hotmail.com.

READY FOR A GIRL'S NIGHT OUT?

The Public Theater in Lewiston is presenting the play "PAINT NIGHT", a modern version of "Steel Magnolias" with modern day issues. October 20-29, matinees offered on Oct. 21, 22, 28 and 29th.

Six women gather at a local "PAINT and SIP NIGHT" studio but as the alcohol flows so do their thoughts about motherhood, womanhood and their lives. Hilarious and heartbreakingly real, but also how women support each other in an unpredictable world.

$30 or $25 if a group of ten signs up. ** Please respond soon if interested. ****

Don't delay!
Tickets are selling FAST!

Please help rake church grounds Nov. 11th from 9 a.m. to Noon

(Rain date after church on Nov. 12th)

This is the annual fall clean up. We rake onto drop cloths and dump into compost bin so there is no bagging. Please bring a rake and gloves if you have them. When we have a good turn out it only takes a couple of hours.

Please confirm with Marilyn Dunn at maine2007@hotmail.com that you plan to help (and prevent her fretting).

Fall Poetry Service

The UU Service on Nov 12th will be a poetry service once again! This time the theme will be quite different. The theme will be “Conversations with Nature”, poems that speak to encounters with the natural world and how we have been affected by them. These can be original works, or favorite poems by other authors that create a connection for us. If you would like to be a reader, please contact John Seksay at netmotel@gmail.com with a copy of your poem. The draft of the service needs to be prepared by Nov 7th, so we would need to have the poems by Nov. 4th. We will include as many works and readers as possible for a rich bouquet of experiences. Looking forward to a thoroughly

The Holiday Craft Boutique will be held on Friday evening December 1st and Sunday December 3rd from 11-2. If you have a special talent that you would like to share for the craft boutique please let us know! There will be a signup sheet for people and items on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall starting Sunday 10/4. Crafts can be anything from food to artwork, needlepoint and sewn items to items crafted from wood or recycled goods.

Sign up for Hannaford Gift Cards on Sunday during the Fellowship hour. Karen Foust will be there with forms and to explain the program to anyone who is interested. The Hannaford Gift Card Program is the single largest fundraiser that the UUC has, AND, it doesn't cost you anything more than shopping for groceries.

An opportunity for reflection...

An opportunity to reflect on the latest wayside pulpit message being shared on the corner of Winthrop and Summer Streets.

“Ambitious people climb, but faithful people build.”
~Julia Ward Howe

Thank you to Angie Blevins for maintaining the wayside pulpit and providing us with messages to ponder.

Ministerial Search Committee Update

The search committee recently met in the Fellowship Hall for a retreat facilitated by Jess Hunt from the UUA.

We established a timeline for our search over the course of the year ahead. We will be conducting a congregational survey in October (watch for your email or mail with the survey THIS WEEK!).

Ministerial Search Committee includes– Kevin Kane, Nan Bell, Debbie Mattson, Stefanie Barley, Harold Burnett and Angie Blevins.

Social Justice Committee

Reverend Carie Johnsen Social Justice Fund

The Social Justice Committee invites you to join us in renewing support for the Reverend Carie Johnsen Social Justice Fund. In conjunction with the Finance Committee, we will have the CJF Appeal in October, beginning this year.

This fund, named in honor of our former minister, Rev. Carie Johnsen, allows the congregation to donate at least $1,000 to a Maine social justice group each spring. You will be receiving a letter with more information on how to contribute.

Please help support the Reverend Carie Johnsen Social Justice Fund. Please consider a generous gift—together we can make a difference to a social justice non-profit in Maine.

Restoring Wabanaki History in Maine at the Ballot Box.

The Eighth Principle and Question 6 in the November Election

Maine voters will soon be asked whether they want to reverse an 1876 Constitutional amendment to omit sections of the Maine Constitution which articulate the Wabanaki treaty obligations assumed from Massachusetts when Maine became a state in 1820.

The separation agreement between the states mandated that Indigenous land agreements continue after Maine established its independence. As Maine grew and settlers wanted more land, these obligations to the tribes became limiting and costly. After the Civil War, Maine's leaders tried to repeal these provisions but quickly learned Massachusetts would not agree to the changes. Blocked from repeal, they turned instead to redaction, passing a Constitutional amendment to omit these sections (which remained in force) when copies of the Constitution was printed. The Maine Historical Society explains the details of this here.

Over the last decade, there have been growing calls to return the omitted passages when our Constitution is published. As you vote in this November's election, take a moment to reflect on the 8th Principle which calls us to act in an anti-racist manner as we work toward a loving and inclusive Beloved Community.

Board of Trustees

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

At its Meeting on September 14, the Board;

- Authorized the minister and the treasurer to sign checks from the minister's discretionary account.
- Discussed the proposed bylaws.
- Explored the possibility of using the book Community: The Structure of Belonging by Peter Block as a community read this year. Decision to be made at the October meeting.

- Discussed the creation of a Personnel Committee.
- Clarified plans to work on the Board’s goals set at the fall retreat (and shared in the 9/6 E-Blast).
- Voted to set up a checking account for the Ministerial Search Committee.
- Discussed a request to serve as the fiscal agent for a community group working on housing issues in Augusta.

FULL MINUTES OF THE MEETING ARE AVAILABLE ON THE CHURCH WEBSITE

Board meetings are open to ALL. If you have an item that you would like the Board to consider, please contact Michaelatloisel@gmail.com. Next Board meeting: Thursday, October 12, 2023
