

UUCC Goes to General Assembly of the Unitarian Universalist Association 2023

In three months –June 21-25, 2023 to be precise – the UU Association of Congregations will be in the midst of discernment of how we express Unitarian Universalism to the world. Mind you, the UUA does not rule UUism.. UUA provides a way for UUs to come together to address how we express how we live out what it means to be a UU individually and collectively.

We, here at UUCC, have an opportunity to be part of this process. Over the last few years we have been represented at GA by one or two delegates authorized by the Board of Trustees to represent UUCC at the GA sessions. Few people have asked about what is occurring at GA, how we could participate, what the discussions mean, how we are part of the broader UU world community. David Rand and Helen Zidowecki presented a service on September 4, 2022, as an invitation to become involved with GA 2023. That is still available on Boxcast and the text of the service is available: check it out! GA was also included in the Winter Flaming Chalice.

ARTICLE II OF THE UUA BYLAWS: REPORT OF THE STUDY COMMISSION

The major focus of General Assembly this year is revision of Article II of the UUA Bylaws by a Study Commission. If the recommendations pass this year, a final vote for changes in will occur 2024! This relates to how we function as an organization and live out Unitarian Universalism.

These resources give essential background for the discussions at GA 2023. The UUCS Small Group Ministry Committee is drawing from these items to prepare session plans for the current groups as well as special group sessions. Hopefully these will be available around April 1.

THE EIGHTH PRINCIPLE

Another focus at GA, along with Article II revision, is the Eighth Principle Project.

“We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote: journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.”

This material will be developed on the website under UUA Connections: Special UUA Initiatives in the next few weeks. In the meantime, this link will give background.
