A Message from our Minister

Dear Members and Friends of UUCC,

Some of you may know that in addition to serving as your minister, I serve as a shamanic practitioner. I help clear land and buildings. I work with people's souls and their connections to the unseen worlds beyond this time and place. This work can involve teaching people how to journey to find their own compassionate teachers, helping people retrieve soul parts, supporting people in their connection to their healthy vibrant ancestors, unraveling curses, burdens, or possessions, and much more. I am especially drawn to working with spirits who are lost and need support in moving on to their proper place. I know for some of you this work may seem unscientific, strange, or just a bunch of hocus pocus, I sometimes feel the same. Yet, I have been studying and practicing shamanic work long enough to see and understand the healing benefits of working in these spirit realms. One of my teachers says: "The shaman does not believe in a division between the body and the spirit or between the visible world of form and the invisible world of energy."

My work in this area began decades ago, before I became a Unitarian Universalist. Part of my feeling welcomed into our faith was my awareness that I could bring this part of myself and my beliefs about these mysteries into this uncommon religion. When I received my call to ministry I had just started going deeper into shamanism and I clearly remember feeling I had to choose between the two. Do I follow the shamanic path, or do I go to seminary? I went to seminary and put this part of my life on hold for a while. Over the past few years my call to shamanism has been growing which is part of the reason I left my last ministry. Currently I am splitting my work between serving as your minister and developing my practice as a shamanic practitioner.

The funny thing is that my soul needed to reclaim its right to be a female spiritual leader in this world which I realized through our ministry. This needed to occur for me to re-member myself and recall my power as a spiritual teacher. Yet, I am seeing how these two calls, shamanism and ministry are now intertwined. So, if you see me pick up a rattle in a pastoral care session or leading rituals in worship or calling on weather spirits in a meeting know that I am always tending to our souls.

Much love and many blessings,
Reverend Christina Sillari

Leadership Council Meeting

After worship on Sunday November 20th

With Reverend Christina

All are welcome!

ANNUAL LEAF RAKING

Please help with annual raking on Friday November 11th from 9-noon with Building and Grounds. We'd like to clean up the grounds prior to MUUSAN's celebration on Saturday. Bring gloves and rakes if you have them. We will rake onto tarps and dump into the compost bin so there is no bagging, and it goes quickly.

If we get enough people, we are done in less than two hours. Saturday the 12th is rain date. Please RSVP Marilyn Dunn at maine2007@hotmail.com.

Goddess/Earth Circles Events

November 10, 7:30-8:30pm Women of Wisdom ZOOM gathering based on the session October 30. All are welcome.

November 27, 1-2:30pm in Fellowship Hall

Along with the theme of Gratitude, we hope to have the Women of Wisdom Books 2022 available for distribution. Contributions are due to Helen by November 16.

For more information on the programs, contact Helen Zidowecki.

Notices / Updates / News

Welcome to our newest Member, Edward Democracy.

My name is Ed Democracy. (pronouns he/him) I am proud to be a new member of the Augusta UU Community Church. I have also joined MUUSAN & the Social Justice Committee. I live on Florence Street in Augusta and work at the Maine State Archives.

I am the proud father of a brand new voter! My daughter Sophia Democracy, also an Augusta resident, is recently eligible and will be voting for the very first time this year! I am very, very proud of her for many other things as well, but, most of all for what an independent, kind and smart human being she is.

I was born in Biddeford and grew up in Eliot, Maine. In 1983, I moved to Portland to attend the University of Southern Maine where I earned a BA in Philosophy and began my 40 years of community organizing. In summary, I am a human being, father, neighbor, citizen, union member, democracy practitioner, permaculture practitioner, social systems philosopher, community organizer, writer, cooperative entrepreneur, future farmer, sailor, and a US Navy veteran for peace through strength of humanity, by humanity, and for humanity.

Ed – we are so glad to have you in our community!! WELCOME!!!

SHARE THE PLATE

Each month, the Sunday morning offering is given to an organization that has been selected by our Social Justice Committee. The UCC has given our Share the Plate contributions to the following organizations so far this programming year:

July	Maine Family Planning	$208.60
August	Capital Area New Mainers Project	$167.00
September	Augusta Food Bank	$273.00
October	Family Violence Project	$226.00

* Your generosity is appreciated.*

E-Blast (12/7)	NO E-Blast (12/14)
E-Blast (12/21)	NO E-Blast (12/28)

- Open office hours will remain in effect into the fall

Office Hours will be Tues, Wed and Thurs from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

There will be NO office hours on Friday. I will spend the day working on tech updates solely.

The office will be closed between Christmas and New Year's Day (reopens Tues. Jan. 3, 2023).

Board of Trustees

The UCC Board of Trustees met on October 13, 2022.

At the October 13 meeting the Board:

Updated the church's Covid 19 policies (See the note from the president elsewhere in this eblast).

Heard a report for the president on progress toward goals set at the Board retreat

Heard a report from the group who attended at workshop title (See article elsewhere in this eblast).

Board meetings are open to ALL. If you have an item that you would like the Board to consider, please contact
Michaelatloisel@gmail.com

Next Board meeting: November 10, 2022

Board Meeting minutes are available from the UCC website (www.augustauu.org).

Important update from the Board of Trustees: Recent changes to Covid safety measures

Recently, two Listening Sessions were held so that we could hear from the Congregation their views about the various Covid safety measures in place - approximately 32 people provided input.

After considering these views as well as recent advisory information from the Covid Advisory Team and the lack of an effective ventilation system for the church, the Board decided to ease current safety measures in the following ways:

The Board voted to allow:

1. Small Group Ministries, committee and Board meetings, Seasoned Souls, and all other groups using our facilities are empowered to individually decide on masking, eating and drinking during their meetings, if all the involved participants agree and feel safe.
2. In the Sanctuary, hallways and rest rooms, masking will continue.
3. Singing will resume in the Sanctuary during church services if congregants who sing wear K-95 or N-95 masks. We ask that congregants bring the required masks (there will be some available, if needed)
4. Coffee Hour will resume unmasked in the Fellowship Hall, provided masks are required in the Sanctuary, in the hallways and restrooms.
5. Elder Lunch and other church dinners, such as the Harvest Dinner will resume in the Fellowship Hall for the Congregation, their families and friends.

I remind you that the Board recently purchased 10 Hepa Filter Air Purifiers for the Sanctuary and Fellowship Hall to reduce the risk of covid transmission as we close doors and windows due to our cold weather. These measures remain in place unless circumstances suggest that we reevaluate and reconsider.

Please feel free to address any concerns with the Board of Trustees:

Michaela Loisel, President
Susan Burnett, Vice-President
Nancy Fritz, Treasurer
Harry Grimmnitz, Finance Chair

Catherine Palmer, Clerk
Members -At-Large:
Terry Cairn
Hal Booth
Past President: Kathy Ann Shaw
